

Climbing Tower at Camp Pigott Chief Seattle Council, BSA

The Camp Pigott Climbing Tower is a fifty foot structure custom designed and built by Scouters just for Camp Pigott. The tower features 3 climbing faces with routes ranging from 5.6 to 5.10 YDS in difficulty. The tower is also surrounded by a bouldering wall. The tower is appropriate for youth 12 years of age and over as well as adults.

Participants will be taught basic climbing grips and techniques, safety procedures, rappelling techniques, and belay techniques. Participants must use equipment provided by the course. It is possible to be taught basic lead climbing techniques (sport) at the tower, please inquire in advance if you are interested.

Ways to experience the Climbing Tower at Camp Pigott:

Summer Camp:

The Climbing Merit Badge Program is available daily at the tower. Groups may sign up for a tower climb during troop time. The Climbing tower may also be available during free time.

Off-Season Events:

Scouting and Non-Scouting Groups (youth-serving) may utilize the course on a day to day basis throughout the fall, winter, and spring (weather dependent).

The Climbing Tower has an overall capacity of 18 individuals and the fee structure is prorated for Boy Scout units. Non-Scouting groups will be required to have proof of insurance. All groups must obtain permission slips with basic medical releases from parents prior to participation.

The climbing tower may be available for unit, multi-unit, district, council, and Order of the Arrow activities. A single unit can expect to spend 2-6 hours at the tower. There is a covered area to have lunch and there are restrooms nearby. Camping may also be available at Camp Pigott or Camp Edward for a low rate.

If interested, please download the COPE and Climbing reservation request form from www.Seattlebsa.org and email raysayah@gmail.com to request a date.

Staffing

We are always looking for Instructors in Training (16+ years of age), Level One Instructors (18+ years of age), and Level Two Directors (21+ years of age).

If interested in staffing, please email Raysayah@gmail.com