

Grand Columbia Territory Polar Bear Camporee

February 7-9, 2025

Scout-a-Vista

Elevation 3,373'

The focus this year is on Winter Campsites!

Snow and/or debris shelter, cooking on the fire, and a desert challenge. Troops will arrive Friday night and make camp. There will be a pot or two of soup on the stove so that troops can eat at the lodge once their camp sites are chosen. Troops can set up camp then eat or eat and then set up camp. Whichever way their SM says. The scouts will have all of Saturday to work on their site and cook on their fire. In the afternoon camp tours will start and campsites will be judged. That evening there will be an indoor campfire, awards and dessert. Sunday morning there will be an Interfaith worship service followed by a grab and go breakfast. Be sure to check out when you grab breakfast! From the looks of things there should be plenty of SNOW! Bring a shovel!!!

- * SPL meeting is Friday at 8:30 in the Dining Hall
- * Sleds are a great idea to haul gear to your campsite but are not required.
- * A shovel for each scout is a great plan.

Please leave a card on the dashboard with the driver's name and unit # so we know whose vehicle is whose

Safety Reminders:

- BSA policy prohibits passengers in beds of pickup trucks
- Drivers, please maintain safe speed and drive cautiously on camp property, watching out for adults and youth. It may be dark when you arrive, so take extra care.
- Drivers-may want to bring chains that fit your vehicle and a snow shovel.
- Follow manufacturer's safe storage instructions when using liquid or propane fuel for cooking or illumination.

- Keep an appropriate fire extinguisher rated for flammable liquids accessible in your campsite.
- “NO FLAMES IN TENTS!” That includes tent heaters that have a flame!!
- Units should take care of minor injuries. We have a medic on site for anything larger than a bandaid.
- Wet gear may be brought into the lodge to dry out

Site Rules:

- Do not cut live trees.
- Do not dig any holes or trenches in the ground; in the snow it is fine!
- Follow BSA “Leave No Trace” camping guidelines (chapter 7, Boy Scout Handbook, 12th Edition).
- Store food properly in patrol boxes and ice chests using a bungee cord or other method to secure the lid. (Trash Pandas are around ie. raccoons)
- Use three pot method for dishwashing.
- Polar Bear Camp is a GREEN camp, therefore bring a mess kit and utensils.

- Note-There is spotty cell service in camp. The camp’s phone number for incoming emergency calls only is (509) 663-7416. The phone will be used for outgoing emergency calls only.

Meals:

Your unit is responsible for all their meals on Saturday.

Please plan warm nutritious meals and snacks.

NOTE: Scouts will be cooking over fire NOT propane. (It is recommended to either not bring propane or leave it in the vehicle as a backup.)

Be Prepared- in advance

Well before your troop comes please spend a meeting or two preparing for winter camping both gear and cold weather and frost /hypothermia prevention and first aid. Here are some links to resources for you so you can be prepared:

Hypothermia Safety Moment is a great one to cover with all scouts and adults attending:

<https://www.scouting.org/health-and-safety/safety-moments/hypothermia/>

What to Bring:

- Roster of participants
- Parts A+B medical forms and copy of medical insurance card for each camper
- A sled to transport gear is optional but encouraged.
- Snow shovels
- Ax/hatchet for cutting wood (it is quartered only)
- Troop and or patrol flags
- Troop first aid kit
- Lanterns, matches, flashlights NOTE: NO FLAMES IN TENTS!
- Standard troop camping equipment (tents, food, cooking equipment, etc.) but with an eye towards winter stable tents. Extra ground cloth so that one is under the tent and another inside the tent.
- Pay particular attention to insulation underneath. NO thick air mattresses (too much air is hard to heat from your body on top and cold under). 2 closed foam cell pads or a closed cell foam pad/therm-a-rest type pad and a double reflective insulation pad (looks like reflective bubble wrap) works well.
- Super warm sleeping bag or 2 sleeping bags. A rectangular bag and a mummy one inside work well in combination. Or one bag and extra blankets or a liner
- A knit cap (or 2)
- Warm gloves (2 pair in case 1 gets wet) with scout's name
- Wool socks or other non cotton socks (bring extra in case they get wet) About 7 pairs change every meal and at bedtime (no lie)
- Warm long underwear and warm pjs
- Layers- at least 3 one being waterproof (snow happens)
- Waterproof shoes or snow boots
- Bike helmet to wear in case sledding for fun happens!
- Day pack with 10 essentials including a compass to be carried by each scout
- A traction device on your shoes is a smart idea like Yak Tracks or the like. The roads get icy and traction on shoes/boots helps prevent falls
- An extra change of dry, clean clothes and a plastic bag or 2 for wet gear
- Flashlights and extra batteries
- Snow shovel(s) This is repeated for emphasis
- Optional: hand warmers
- Tip: wise leaders bring a few extra sleeping bags or blankets, extra tarps and plastic bags for wet things and also ask each scout Saturday morning if their gear is dry (we can dry it) and if they were warm enough.
- Uniforms of the Day: Scouts BSA Field uniform (Class "A") is required for the Saturday morning & evening flag. Otherwise be warm and waterproof
