Cub Scouts at Klondike

- Scout Troops are Welcome to have Cub Scouts Shadow their Unit for the day Only.
- Cub scouts who wish to shadow a unit should make plans to register with the Unit Prior to the event.
- All cub scouts must have their Parent or Guardian Present with them for the duration of the time spent at the event.
- Cub scouts and Guardians are still expected to pay the full registration fee for the event unless units wish to subsidize their registration cost.
- Scouts who do not show up in winter outdoor gear will be kindly asked to leave the event.

OA Staffing Opportunities

The Klondike Derby is %100 Planned and Executed by the Scouts of the Order of the Arrow. It is an amazing event for scouts to learn new leadership skills and understand the process of planning a large event. We encourage all scouts to consider trying this amazing learning opportunity.

All youth interested in Staffing Klondike should meet the following requirements.

- Be at least the Rank of First Class if not Higher.
- Have been nominated to the Order of the Arrow and Completed their Induction weekend
- Not currently holding a leadership role such as SPL or Patrol Leader of an acting unit or Patrol at the event.

Please Email the Order of the Arrow Chapter Advisor and Klondike Coordinator Russell Schmidt if you wish to register as a staff member. Staff will have all food and meals cooked for them and will focus on Running the Programs during the duration of the event. All Staff will need to prepare to Camp individually in their own tents if needed.

Event Preparations and Health Notices

- Health Notice: All individuals are expected to mask up regardless of Vaccination status. All participants must sign the Covid-19 Health Release Form Prior to or upon Check in. If you are showing signs of Fever, Cough, Chills or Shortness of breath please stay home there is always next year.
- First Aid Notice: Please review all cold weather first aid procedures prior to attending the event. There is a Huge Risk of Frost Bite and Hypothermia during the event if your unit is not verse in recognizing the signs and symptoms of cold weather ailments/injuries.
- Competition Notice: The Chili Cook-off will be mandatory this year please refer to the competition section for more details. The Design and Theme of your sled will play a crucial role in determining the winner this year.
- Camping Notice: All units should prepare for youth to sleep individually unless paired with a family member. For Safety Purposes, vehicles are not allowed at the campsites with no exceptions. All vehicles are expected to park in designated parking areas.
- Bring Fire pans for Competition and for inside your campsite. Be Prepared to extinguish and pack out your ashes.
- Units should bring large group water jugs. There is only one water spigot for the whole camp
- All Scouts need to be completely outfitted for cold weather. Equipment should be checked to ensure good condition for the activity and proper maintenance while in use. Youth should be

Check-In

Unit check-in will be conducted between the hours of 5:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Friday and between 7:00 am and 9:00am Saturday ... We are requesting Senior Patrol Leaders to Organize their units for temperature checks before checking their units into the event.

The Following items will be required at check-in

1. Unit Check In Form: Crucial for our Emergency Preparedness Planned
2. Medical Forms A&B. The Unit Leader is expected to have all medical forms present upon check-in. Please do not mail medical forms to the council office,
3. Covid-19 Release Form.
4. Final list of patrols, including the patrol names. This year we will accept patrols with up to but no more than 10 Scouts. The ideal size is about 8 scouts.

- All Equipment must be removed from the premises.
- Fire will have been extinguished and packed out.
- The SPL will organize a unit wide trash sweep across the campsite
- Fire will have been extinguished and packed out.

Winter Camping Safety

There is magic to camping in winter. It is one of the most challenging of outdoor adventures. The Boy Scouts of America. Special considerations for winter camping are:

- Qualified Supervision. It is vital that a leader be an experienced winter camper with strong character and common sense.
- Equipment. Be completely outfitted for cold weather. Equipment should be checked to ensure good condition for the activity and proper maintenance while in use. Youth should be adequately clothed, and blankets/Sleeping Bags should be a suitable quality and weight.
- Physical Fitness. Youth should be suitably fit for the activity. Periodic rests while building snow caves and engaging in other strenuous cold-weather activities will help prevent accidents and overheating.
- Buddy System. Having Youth paired aids in monitoring each other's physical condition and observation of surroundings and circumstances.
- Planning. Safe activities follow a plan that has been conscientiously developed. In winter, plan to cover no more than 5 miles per day on snowshoes or 10 to 12 miles on cross-country skis. Allow ample time to make it to camp at the end of the day.
- Safe Area. Leaders should determine whether an area for winter camping is well-suited and free of hazards.
- Weather Check. Weather conditions, potential hazards, and the appropriate responses should be understood and anticipated. Go to my.scouting.org for Hazardous Weather training.
- Burning. Never use flames in tents, teepees, or snow shelters. This includes burning any solid, liquid, gel, or gas fuel; using features of tents or teepees that support stoves or fires; and use of chemical-fueled equipment and catalytic heaters.
- Discipline. Rules are effective only when followed. All participants should know, understand, and respect the rules and procedures for a safe winter camping experience. Applicable rules should be discussed prior to the outing and reviewed for all participants when leaving for the winter campout.

All scouts in attendance are expected to adhere to the Guidelines of Safe Scouting and Youth Protection

Sled Protocol

Sleds must be constructed entirely by patrols. Shopping carts, 55-gallon drums, etc. -are not considered to be constructed by the scouts. Store bought sleds will be allowed but will not receive any point recognition. For reference on how to construct Klondike Sleds, see Boy's Life reprints or other winter camping resources.

The following plan is for a sled that has minimum and maximum dimensions as shown. The sled below is shown as a guide. Your own design may be used if it conforms to the minimum and maximum dimensions. Make sure the sled is strong enough to bear the weight of your equipment and one Scout and will hold together for a long trip. It is best to use screws rather than nails. Drill first to avoid splitting wood. The sled shown uses a single piece runner. Skis or multiple runners may be used. Varnish bottom of runners and wax before using. Wire netting or a canvas snow curtain may be added to prevent items from falling off of the sled.

Secure a towing rope at the front.

In past years, the biggest safety problem has been protrusions, like a "push bar" at the rear of the sled, accidentally striking a scout. This year, we ask that you examine your sled for any potential safety problems. The push bar should not protrude more than 6" on each side of the sled. We also ask that no "temporary" additional push bars be placed on the sled during the race. If any member of the Klondike staff notices an illegal protrusion, your sled will be subject to an immediate modification.

You can "pad" handles and sharp corners with neoprene foam rubber pipe insulation secured with duct tape, available at hardware or lumber stores.

When constructing the sled please only use bolts, screws or Lashings. Nails will not hold the sled together.

Item	Label	Quantity	Dimensions
Runners	A	2	1" x 4" x 6'2"
Uprights	B1	2	1" x 4" x 3'6"
	B2	2	1" x 4" x 2'8"
	B3	2	1" x 4" x 1'9"
	B4	2	1" x 4" x 10"
Upright Supports	C	8	2" x 4" x 4"
Cross Supports	D	6	1" x 4" x 1'5"
Floor Strips	E	4	1" x 4" x 6'
Hand Rails	F	2	1" x 2" x 7'
Front Supports	G	2	1" x 4" x 6"

Emergency Preparedness

- Tent Camping in the snow can be a challenging experience and it is extremely important all scouts understand the importance of dressing in the appropriate attire. Inadequate or improper clothing for winter weather conditions can result in cases of frostbite and hypothermia. Cotton Kills please avoid wearing cotton while snow camping.
- Equipment Shakedowns prior to the event are highly recommended
- Please Prepare all Scouts attending with the knowledge and training to recognize the symptoms of hypothermia and frost bite prior to attending the event.
- Please pay close attention to weather reports and drive in weather appropriate vehicles.
- Ensure you have an accurate headcount of everyone in your unit and patrols.
- Please fill out the Unit Check in form prior to attending and provide to staff at check in upon check in
- Please Pack Enough Food to Sustain your unit for the duration of the event food will not be provided to the klondike staff
