DUTY TO GOD FOOTSTEPS

December is an excellent time to complete Duty to God Footsteps. There are many religious holidays, festivals, and ceremonies including Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanzaa, Omisoka, Mawled el-Nabi, Rohatsu, and more so our diverse families can celebrate and learn as they complete their Duty to God Footsteps requirements

WOLF DUTY TO GOD FOOTSTEPS REQUIREMENTS:

Complete requirement 1 or 2 plus at least two others.

1. Discuss with your parent, guardian, den leader, or other caring adult what it means to do your duty to God. Tell how you do your duty to God in your daily life.
2. Earn the religious emblem of your faith that is appropriate for your age, if you have not already done so.
3. Offer a prayer, meditation, or reflection with your family, den, or pack.

Read a story about people or groups of people who came to America to enjoy religious freedom.

5. Learn and sing a song that could be sung in reverence before or after meals or one that gives encouragement, reminds you how to show reverence, or demonstrates your duty to God.
6. Visit a religious monument or site where people might show reverence. Create a visual display of your visit with your den or your family and show how it made you feel reverent or helped you better understand your duty to God.

December Week 1

ACTIVITIES (REQUIREMENT 6)

◆ Activity 1: Religious Monument or Site Visit Tour the site as a den, and allow time for the Scouts to ask their questions. When the tour is finished, have everyone thank the people who helped and present the thank-you note(s).

Covid Adaptation: With current meeting restrictions have families visit a religious site in their community. <https://www.gpsmycity.com/tours/historical-religious-buildings-tour-2652.html> is a walking tour in Seattle that includes several religious monuments as it relates to the history of Seattle. Some research could uncover the history of your local community. Alternatively, there are many virtual tours of the world's most significant religious sites including this guide: <https://religionunplugged.com/news/2020/4/5/travel-5-religious-sites-you-can-visit-virtually-while-you-stay-home>

◆ Activity 2: Visual Display Find a place where the Scouts can sit and create something on the large section of cloth or poster. Pass out markers for them to draw pictures or write messages about what the site meant to them personally.

Covid Adaptation: Create artwork at home on the impact of the in-person or virtual visit and share during a brief videoconference giving each Scout an opportunity to share what they learned or impacted them.

December Week 2

OPENING (REQUIREMENT 5)

- Conduct a flag ceremony of your choosing that includes the Pledge of Allegiance and the Scout Oath and Scout Law.
- To complete requirement 5, Scouts sing a song.

Feel free to select a song or sing “America’s Great Beauty” (to the tune of the “Battle Hymn of the Republic”).

My eyes have seen the beauty of the land and skies and seas,
America’s great beauty makes me fall upon my knees.
To thank my God who made her, and to ask him please,
Keep my homeland safe and strong.

ACTIVITIES

- ◆ Activity 1: Duty to God (Optional) Have Scouts share with the den how they do their duty to God or share a faith tradition that their family practices. They may bring pictures, books, or other items to make a presentation.
- ◆ Activity 2: My Footprints (Optional) Have paints, permanent markers, and other craft materials on hand for Scouts to decorate the footprint they made on paper or in plaster of paris.

CLOSING Have each Scout show their footprint and tell about how it was decorated. Then gather in a circle and tell them:

All of these footprints are different, not only in size and how you decorated them but also in how unique each one of you is. You are very special, not only to your families but to God, too. In the years ahead, you will continue to grow and your own footprints will get bigger; as this happens, remember to keep your feet moving forward, doing your duty to God.

Covid Adaptation: Week 2 can be completely done over a brief videoconference which allows the Wolf Scouts to share with each other. Make sure that the Wolf Scout’s parents have several notices to come prepared ahead of time with the books/pictures etc. for their Duty to God show and tell as well as have the decorated plaster or print footprint prepared for sharing.
