

Chief Seattle Council Outdoor Adventures Refund Policy

Preparing for camp requires our council to make certain advanced commitments and purchases including food, program supplies, equipment, repairs, maintenance and employing staff. Camp fees are crucial to our ability to deliver a quality camp program.

RESIDENT CAMPS/PROGRAMS

Includes Camp Parsons, Camp Pigott and Camp Edward summer resident camps, Adventure Camp, Camp Getaway, National Youth Leadership Training, Powder Horn and Wood Badge.

Per person deposit required for resident camps/programs is nonrefundable. $100 deposit for Camp Getaway is nonrefundable. Fees of cancelling participant are transferrable within the reservation. Refunds are not automatic for unit overpayment of reservation.

Refunds are not given for no-shows, behavior issues, scheduling conflicts with other activities such as family vacation, team sports, school activities. The Council cannot refund or reallocate Camp Cards or Camperships.

Resident Camp Refund Requests:

Refunds will be considered if participant experiences an accident, serious illness including COVID 19, or death in the immediate family. Refunds for these reasons are based on the date of occurrence.

A 50% refund, less deposit, is granted if the qualifying event occurred up to 15 days prior to the session.

WINTER CAMP/DAY CAMP

Refunds will be considered if participant experiences an accident, serious illness including COVID 19, or death in the immediate family. Refunds for these reasons are based on the date of occurrence. There are no refunds for Winter Camp Cabin Buy-Outs.

A 50% refund is granted if the qualifying event occurred up to 15 days prior to the session.

SEASONAL CAMP PROGRAMS

Includes day-long events such as Merit Badge Days, Shooting Sports Day, and Camp Halloween.

Fees for seasonal camp programs are non-refundable but are transferrable to another day-long camp within a year of the event.

Making a refund request:

All refund requests must be made in writing to campingdept@seattlebsa.org by 10 business days after the last day of camp/program. Any refunds requested after this 10-day period will not be considered. Include the reason for withdrawal, unit number, camp/session, and participant name. For questions, please call the Camping Department at 206-725-0361.
